«My Plan Challenge Foundation Department # 09122130»

This is the official mission statement letter for “My Plan Challenge Foundation” under Coaches! 101 PAC which is a 527 political organization. This letter has been approved by Coaches! 101 A NJ Non-Profit; the parent company’s legal representative Omar Dyer. This foundation is a separate entity using department code #09122130, and for charitable tax purposes EIN # 80-0377672. The parent company is Coaches! 101 A NJ Non-Profit, and for more information please contact our legal representative.

Mission Statement

The My Plan Challenge Foundation is organized by the political action committee named above, as a non-partisan and non-political foundation. The foundation is a department within the 527 political organization, and the non-profit organization of Coaches! 101 A NJ Non-Profit and Coaches! 101 PAC. The foundation acts as a fundraising department for selected items in the catalog. Under the recognized department code 09122130, as the official party subjected to the foundation’s by-laws. This department was setup to be an olive branch for raising funds to pursue projects that involve the market character and face of the foundation: Mad Comedian. The foundation’s mission is to raise funds for operation cost for film, social media, and personal appearances.

Foundation’s Goals

My Plan Challenge Foundation

The goals for the My Plan Challenge Foundation, are to raise awareness in the community for multiple call for actions. Call for actions are community based initiatives that help raise a concern for humanity in the community. Together with the help of a fictional online character we can train the Next Generation of Leaders. For or to become political advocates on community based programs and agendas. Mad Comedian has a service mark in the state of New Jersey and a trademark pending for the United States. The foundation’s goal is to also advocate for changes in living conditions and homelessness. And create seminars for political training of candidates that will employ our brand’s image to reach a wider audience. The My Plan Challenge Foundation, has a main goal to raise close to $1 million dollars selling products in our many online commerce stores, or through our selected website on social media, and the professional site for Mad Comedian.

APPROVAL AND AUTHORITY TO PROCEED

We approve the project as described above and authorize the team to proceed.
